

{SEEKING FAIR AND ACCURATE ELECTIONS}

DEMOCRACY

IS IN THE DETAILS: WHAT'S URGENT IN 2010

QUIXOTE FOUNDATION and the Election Verification Network invite you to a private briefing on election and civic engagement issues, for funders only, at the Hotel Palomar, 2121 P Street NW, Washington D.C.

Get the latest updates on Internet voting, the Diebold/ES&S merger and antitrust actions, what to watch for in the 2010 mid-term elections and more, directly from national leaders in U.S. election integrity and civil rights. The briefing will include a panel presentation and plenty of time for Q&A.

SAVE THE DATE: THURSDAY, March 25, 2010

HOTEL PALOMAR, 2121 P STREET NW, WASHINGTON, D.C.

4:30–6:00 PM (optional reception following)

Watch for the detailed invitation, contact us with questions or confirm your attendance early to aana@quixotefoundation.org. If you'd like to invite other foundation, corporate or individual donors, please let us know. Hope to see you there.

WITH THE ELECTION VERIFICATION NETWORK

The Election Verification Network seeks to make sure every person's vote in all U.S. elections is recorded correctly and counted accurately for fair results the public can verify. Sponsored by Quixote Foundation since 2004, the EVN has grown to include some 110 leaders including representatives from nonprofit organizations, election officials and individuals working in election integrity, civic engagement and civil rights.
